

“Where
you go I will go,
and where you stay I will stay.
Your people will be my people and your God my God.”
— Ruth 1:16

Redemption and Purpose

Ruth's story points to God's redemption and our purpose in His greater plan. Ruth 4:14–17

OVERVIEW

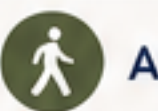

The book of Ruth is a beautiful story of love, loyalty, and redemption. Ruth, a Moabite woman, chooses to leave her homeland and follow her mother-in-law Naomi and the God of Israel. Through faith and obedience, Ruth becomes part of God's greater plan, leading to her marriage to Boaz and becoming the great-grandmother of King David.

Ruth's story reminds us that God sees our faithfulness, works all things together for good, and invites anyone—regardless of their past—into His family and purpose.

REFLECTION & DISCUSSION

- What qualities in Ruth's character stand out to you the most? How can you apply them in your life?
- What does Ruth 1:16 teach us about loyalty and commitment?
- How did Ruth's faith lead her to take action?
- In what ways has God been faithful to provide and protect you in your life?
- How can you position yourself to be used in God's greater plan like Ruth?

APPLICATION

Ruth's story challenges us to live with loyalty, faith, and purpose. This week:

- ☒ Choose to be loyal and faithful in your relationships.
- ☒ Step out in faith, even when the path is uncertain.
- ☒ Work with humility and integrity in all you do.
- ☒ Trust God to work behind the scenes for your good.
- ☒ Look for ways to bless and serve others selflessly.

PRAYER

Lord, thank You for the example of Ruth. Help me to walk in faith, show loyalty in love, and trust You in every season. Use my life for Your purpose and lead me into the fullness of Your plan. May my story bring glory to You and bless others. Amen.

MEMORY VERSE

“Where you go I will go,
and where you stay I will stay.
Your people will be my people and your God my God.”

— Ruth 1:16
